

Curriculum Vita for Dr. Jade K. Kim

Personal Data

Dr. Kim was born in South Korea and came to the United States to study abroad in 1991. Although she originally planned to be a chemist, her interest in the healthcare field led her to become a dentist. She lives in Seattle with her family. Her husband works at the University of Washington and Children's Hospitals. Her two rambunctious boys and one baby girl make sure that she is constantly busy. Dr. Kim feels that balance is important in life. When she can find the time, she enjoys swimming and oil painting.
